Heritage in Every Stitch Embroidery Workshop

October 01, 2025 1:00 pm- 2:00 pm

San Jacinto Campus

AniMakerSpace Rm 110

Celebrate Latine Heritage Month through the art of embroidery! Learn simple stitching techniques while exploring how embroidery reflects culture, identity, and tradition. All materials provided.

This collaborative session brings together the Latinx, Black, and Native American student programs to engage in a powerful dialogue on culture, identity, and student success. By centering diverse voices and shared experiences, we will explore how intersectionality strengthens community, fosters solidarity, and uplifts student achievement across our campus.
