ASL Interpretation & Translation: Associate in Science - Non-Transfer

When you learn a new language and culture, you gain access to a whole new world beyond everything that you have ever known. Here at Mt. San Jacinto College, the Department of ASL Interpretation & Translation offers you the unique opportunity to study American Sign Language and Deaf Culture in a full immersion setting! Acquiring a language is not just about learning vocabulary, but about internalizing a way of life.

Scheduling Notes

Schedule your GE courses as early as possible to avoid overloading yourself with coursework later in the program.

The GE courses listed are recommendations, not requirements! Feel free to take comparable courses that match your interests!

Helpful Hints

The senior year of IPP requires extensive time outside of class meetings for both interpreter observation requirements and internship requirements.

Language acquisition courses should be taken in order without breaks between levels; taking breaks in language acquisition can negatively impact your language skills.
