History: Associate in Arts for Transfer UC

Every moment in time becomes history. Great events like the Second World War to the smallest interaction between local peoples influence and inform all that comes after. Similarly, the study of the past reveals valuable achievements as well as dreadful mistakes, and in so doing helps us become more globally informed citizens to better address the unexpected challenges of our own day. The study of history helps us learn to think with rigor, to write with clarity and precision, to organize and assess evidence, to analyze problems, and interpret complex events that will contribute to our academic success and professional endeavors.

Scheduling Notes

Though taking them in sequence might be ideal the survey courses (101-102, 103-104, 111-112) can be taken in any order.

Consider using elective choices to emphasize an area of personal interest such as the liberal arts, social sciences, ethnic studies, gender studies, etc.

Helpful Hints

Meet with a counselor or the History Department Counselor Liaison every semester to make sure you stay on track with your transfer and professional goals.

Schedule a meeting with a department chair or history instructor to discuss choosing a university or graduate program and career choices in academia.
